

PRESS RELEASE

ALIMENTATION COUCHE-TARD ISSUES STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO CASEY'S GENERAL STORES' PRIVATE PLACEMENT

---

ATD.A, ATD.B / TSX

Laval, Québec — August 12, 2010 — Alimentation Couche-Tard Inc. (“Couche-Tard”) today issued the following statement in response to the announcement by Casey’s General Stores, Inc. (“Casey’s”) (NASDAQ: CASY) that it has completed a private placement of $569 million principal amount of 5.22% Senior Notes due August 9, 2020 to fund its leveraged recapitalization. Couche-Tard stated:

Casey’s recent action to transfer value from the Casey’s shareholders to noteholders is outrageous. In our view, the private placement of notes recently completed by Casey’s, which has a costly and unusual “poison put” feature in favor of the noteholders, is designed to entrench the Casey’s Board and management at the expense of the Casey’s shareholders. Under the “poison put” feature associated with the notes, Casey’s is required to pay the noteholders approximately $95 million in penalties based on current treasury rates, in addition to the outstanding principal amount and accrued interest on the notes, if any party acquires 35% or more of the outstanding shares of Casey’s. The financing makes it almost $2 per share more expensive to acquire Casey’s – that is $2 that could have gone to the shareholders but instead is designated for noteholders in the event of any such acquisition. The Casey’s Board and management are willing to give almost 5% of the company’s current equity value (and almost 7% of the equity value pro forma for the self tender based on current stock prices) to the noteholders in a desperate attempt to keep their jobs at the expense of the Casey’s shareholders.

The terms of the notes would also require Casey’s to pay the noteholders approximately $95 million in penalties if the Casey’s shareholders decide to replace a majority of the Casey’s Board. The Casey’s Board and management are trying to take the decision regarding the future of the company away from the Casey’s shareholders by putting this expensive “poison put” in place. There are multiple forms of debt financing that feature change of control premiums far lower than the egregious 16% premium Casey’s accepted. More typically, debt financing used by companies like Casey’s has change of control premiums in the 1% to 3% range.

Since our initial approach to Casey’s in October 2009, Casey’s has had more than 10 months to consider a range of alternatives to maximize value for all of the Casey’s shareholders. We believe the Casey’s leveraged recapitalization plan confirms there are no other buyers for Casey’s at a price exceeding Couche-Tard’s offer. The Casey’s leveraged recapitalization plan is designed to financially engineer a temporary and artificial increase in Casey’s stock price, without increasing fundamental value to the Casey’s shareholders. Additionally, it is a pretext for installing a coercive financing arrangement with a “poison put” mechanism designed to impede any takeover attempt.

The actions taken by Casey's signal that it is unable to effectively deploy capital to create sustainable and profitable growth and value.

Despite our best efforts, Casey's Board and management team continue to refuse to negotiate with Couche-Tard. Casey's has not allowed us to conduct any due diligence and has taken actions to impede our premium offer, including undertaking the leveraged recapitalization with costly and unusual financing, commencing costly and meritless litigation against Couche-Tard, adopting a poison pill, and putting in place lucrative golden parachute arrangements for executives of Casey's. The shareholders of Casey's deserve a Board and management team that will act in the best interests of the Casey's shareholders.

Couche-Tard's tender offer is scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Monday, August 30, 2010, unless further extended.

The tender offer documents, including the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal, and preliminary proxy materials have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
